Automobile Occupied by Chicago
People Turns Over West of Rush-
ville and Catches Fire

WOMAN IS WORST INJURED

Mrs. Fred Danielson Suffers Broken
Leg and Slight But Extensive
Burns—Pinned Under Car

Four people escaped death this morning when an automobile skidded in loose gravel on the state road three miles west of Rushville, turned over and burned up.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Danielson of Oak Park, Chicago, were the most seriously hurt, and their son Earl, a young man, was only slightly injured. Ray Dewire, who was driving the machine, was not injured.

Mrs. Danielson's left leg was broken just below the knee and she suffered from light but extensive burns, which covered portions of her back, side, one arm, face and head. Part of her hair was burned off.

Mr. Danielson has a superficial scalp wound, probably caused by glass, an injury to his chest and slight burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson were taken to the Dr. Sexton hospital for treatment. Mrs. Danielson was suffering from shock when she reached the hospital.

The party was enroute from Chicago to Miami, Florida. Dewire who was driving the car, said that he passed a machine going west and went around another car going in the same direction as theirs, when the front wheels hit some loose gravel on the north side of the road and he lost control.

The machine careened through the air and fell upside down in the ditch headed west, in directly the opposite direction it was going. The car was being driven at a high rate of speed, it is said.

Ollie Offutt of Arlington, who was coming to Rushville in an automobile witnessed the accident. He stated that the automobile burst into flames the minute it settled on the ground.

The driver was thrown out and Mr. Danielson and his son crawled out from under the mass of twisted wreckage, but Mrs. Danielson was pinned under the body of the car.

The flames were spreading rapidly and with six men lifting, the weight of the machine could not be raised so that Mrs. Danielson could be freed.

A Ford truck that was passing, was unable to drag the machine off of Mrs. Danielson's leg and farmers

ACCIDENT VICTIMS SLOWLY RECOVERING

Persons Injured in Collision Sunday
Near Here, are Getting Along
Well as Expected

WOMAN REMAINS IN HOSPITAL

The automobile accident victims of Sunday afternoon, were reported today to be getting along as nicely as could be expected, with Mrs. Dossie Callahan still taking treatment in the hospital at Shelbyville, and Mrs. Madeline Callahan, her mother-in-law, recovering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clem Gardner, southwest of here.

The two women were the most seriously injured of eleven persons, when machines driven by Dossie Callahan of near here and John Kirby of Greensburg, ran together at a cross roads on the Winship pike south of here.

Mr. Callahan was bruised and cut, and suffered a broken collar bone, and their four children escaped with minor cuts.

His mother, Mrs. Madeline Callahan, who is 68 years of age, was bruised about the body and hips, and was reported as having spent a good night. Mr. Callahan's wife was taken to the hospital at Shelbyville for an examination and treatment, and her condition was also reported today as being satisfactory.

The four young men from Greensburg escaped without any serious injuries. Each machine was badly damaged.

ONE INCH SNOW FELL IN COUNTY

Season's First Blanket of the
"Beautiful" was Sufficient to be Recorded

WARMER WEATHER IN SIGHT

Rising Mercury Predicted Wednesday,
With Coldest Last Night
Registering 23 Degrees

Rising temperature is in sight for Wednesday, according to the weather bureau in their report today, predicting generally fair tonight and tomorrow.

The mercury last night did not drop a low as the night before by one degree, with 23 being the coldest reached during the night, according to Elwood Kirkwood of Maunzy, in charge of the government station. The night before the coldest was 22 degrees.

He also reported that the snow fall recorded an inch yesterday afternoon. With the mercury at 22 Monday morning, the temperature remained low all day, and the highest reached was 34 degrees shortly before the snow fall in the afternoon. Today the mercury was going up gradually in the sun, but little moderation was seen in the protected places.

Some of the largest snow storms and blizzards on record in the past have occurred during the months of October and November, according to Mr. Kirkwood, who has kept the records for more than 30 years.

The first snow fall of the winter arrived about a month earlier than it did last year, although records available for the past 12 years, show that the first snow has been recorded on several years in October.

The record of the first snow has been a hobby at the local postoffice, where a card is kept, and the date of the first appearance of snow on the ground has been kept since 1913.

In 1917, the beginning of the extreme cold winter that will be remembered by all, the first snow fell October 12, and from then on, the mercury hung low.

The dates of the first snow, when it could be seen on the ground are as follows: October 20, 1913; October 26, 1914; November 15, 1915; October 20, 1916; October 12, 1917; December 25, 1918; December 5, 1919; November 15, 1920; November 9, 1921; November 24, 1922; December 12, 1923; November 17, 1924.

Still in Cold's Grip

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Indiana continued today in the icy grip of the first cold wave of the season which was ushered in with a sudden drop in temperature and snowfall throughout the state yesterday.

The unexpected advent of winter weather after the unusually warm weather of the past month brought suffering to hundreds in the tenement districts of the cities and charitable and welfare organizations were beset with appeals for aid.

Coal dealers reported a flood of customers as householders hastened to lay in a supply of fuel.

The snowfall was general throughout the state yesterday, ranging from six inches at Goshen to a light

EDUCATION WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Observance of Event is Carried Out
in Three Township Schools Monday
With Speakers

TO CONTINUE ALL WEEK

Speakers Obtained for Each Community,
with General Observance
Here Wednesday Night

American Education Week is being observed in the various sections of Rush county with speakers assigned for school and community meetings, and the observance of the event will be held in Rushville city Wednesday night, when the public schools will be in full operation after the supper hour.

School patrons are urged to take advantage of the night school program and visit the schools, see how they are operated under the every day system used in the schools. The public schools, including the grades and high school, will not be open Wednesday afternoon, and the regular afternoon classes will be carried out after the supper hour, beginning at seven o'clock.

In the rural schools of the county, speakers have been obtained for meetings, at which the pupils and school patrons are urged to gather and hear the addresses on the observance of educational week.

The first of these meetings was held Monday in three sections. At Webb the Rev. Gibson Wilson was the speaker last night, and at Center, H. D. VanMatre, county agent was the speaker. F. C. Landrus spoke at the Shiveley's Corner school in the afternoon. The Milroy meeting, scheduled for last night, was not held because John H. Kiplinger, the speaker, was unable to attend.

The Milroy meeting has been changed until Thursday afternoon when Prof. Sherwood of Franklin, the newly elected state superintendent will speak. He will be in Rushville at noon to address the Kiwanis club and after speaking in Milroy, he will speak to a meeting at Carthage at night.

The program today included speakers at three schools tonight. John A. Tittsworth was to speak at New Salem, H. B. Allman at Moscow and the Rev. H. W. Hargrett at Circleville. The meeting at Glenwood was postponed until Thursday night, when H. B. Allman will be the speaker.

For Wednesday, B. D. Farthing will speak at Gines at night. Dr. Ramsey of the state department will

First Snow Brings The First Santa Claus Letter

The first snow of the winter, which began falling Monday afternoon, brought the first Santa Claus letter to the Daily Republican office. The snow, and the cold weather that preceded it, evidently inspired the thought of Santa Claus, for a little girl sent her big sister to the Republican office about four o'clock with her message to Kris Kingle.

Another little girl ran after Ben Sparks, city letter carrier, for almost a block, in order to give him a letter to Santa Claus. It was not legible, but Santa Claus will have no trouble understanding it.

The Daily Republican will begin publishing the Santa Claus letters as soon as a number of them are received.

KIWANIS CLUBS OF STATE ASKED TO HELP

J. T. Arbuckle, District Governor,
Urges Co-operation to Increase
Safety at Crossings

'SAFETY WEEK' RECOMMENDED

J. T. Arbuckle of this city, district governor of Indiana Kiwanis clubs, has addressed a letter to clubs of the state, urging them to co-operate in the movement to bring about greater safety at grade crossings, which began with the safety conference held recently in Indianapolis. Mr. Arbuckle and O. B. Iles of Indianapolis attended the conference as representatives of the Kiwanis clubs of Indiana.

Mr. Arbuckle recalls in the letter that the Kiwanis clubs performed a great service when they put on a "Courtesy Week" some time ago and that an equally great service can be rendered with a campaign of education in regard to safety at railroad and interurban crossings. This can be accomplished through the schools, the letter to clubs points out, and methods whereby dangerous crossings may be eliminated are also cited.

The district governor urges clubs to take the leadership in their respective communities and bring together the proper officials, and assure them of the hearty support of Kiwanians in any effort to reduce hazards at grade crossings.

In closing, he suggests that each club, within the month, select its own date and fashion its own program for a "Safety Week".

LIKENS SCHOOLS TO A CORPORATION

Supt. H. B. Allman Delivers American
Education Week Address Before
Rotary Club

EVERYBODY A STOCKHOLDER

Not Perogative of Government to Say Every Child Shall go Through
Public Schools

The public schools was likened to a corporation in an American Education Week address before the Rotary club today noon by H. B. Allman, superintendent of the Rushville schools. He pointed out that the public schools were like a corporation in that it was composed of stockholders, but the school, unlike the average corporation, has every individual as a shareholder and has to deal with everyone. This makes the problem of the public school, he showed, distinctly different.

David S. McIntosh, supervisor of music in the Rushville public schools sang two selections, "Shipmates of Mine" and "Yesterday and Today", with piano accompaniment by Miss Virginia Lucas, and received enthusiastic applause.

E. B. Thomas, member of the San Juan, Porto Rico, Rotary club, and honorary member of the Rushville club, was a visitor, and Clifford S. Lee, of New York City, former Rushville boy and at one time editor of the Daily Republican, was a guest at the meeting.

"Education was first viewed as religious training and under primitive conditions, it was a simple matter," Supt. Allman said "Think what a far step to adult citizenship it is today."

"Education is something that begins with the first faint wail of the infant and continues until the last fleeting breath, for every day we learn something. Education is not something that begins with the schools and ends with the schools."

"The schools have no corner on education. The public schools have practically a monopoly, but there are many fine private and parochial schools. And I am not sure but that it would be a misfortune if the public schools did have a corner on education."

"There has been some agitation along this line, but I must confess I am not in sympathy with it. It is scarcely the prerogative of government to say every child shall go through the public schools and take the course mapped out for them. But taking the country over, I believe

MUSIC LEADER IN CHARGE

Miss Piersol to Conduct Richland Township Meeting Thursday

Miss Piersol, county music supervisor, will have charge of the program to be given at the meeting of the Richland Parent-Teachers association at the M. E. church in Richland, Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The work being done by Miss Piersol in training the first four grades, especially, is highly appreciated by the parents having children in school.

The Rev. Charles Brown of Laurel will give a short talk to the teachers and parents at this time, he being interested in this line of work. The farmer's federation will also have part in the meeting. All people who love children and music should not fail to be present at this special meeting, it is declared.

PASTOR IS FREE FOR THE PRESENT

R. V. Sheatsley of Columbus, O.,
Given Severe Grilling in Connection
With Wife's Death

BODY BURNED IN FURNACE

Charred Remains Discovered by Pastor and Matter Reported to Police

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 18—Insisting that he is as much baffled by the mystery of his wife's death as are the police, Rev. R. V. Sheatsley, pastor of the Lutheran church, in the fashionable Bexley residential section, was dismissed temporarily today after a severe grilling by the county prosecutor.

The pastor went immediately to the mortuary where his wife's charred remains, which he discovered in the parsonage furnace, were being prepared for burial.

The death of Mrs. Sheatsley shocked the exclusive residential district of Bexley where her husband is pastor of its leading church.

Coroner Murphy wanted to issue a verdict of suicide and let it go at that, but the prosecutor insisted that the whole thing be opened up and made the subject of a thorough investigation.

"It is ridiculous that Mrs. Sheatsley could have crawled in on that growing bed of coals and pulled the door shut behind her," King said.

At the police station Rev. Sheatsley told the same story he had told the coroner earlier in the day.

He arrived home last night after calling on members of his congregation and found his older son, Milton, investigating the odor of burning flesh.

The boy said he had looked in the furnace several times before his father came home but that he thought the odor came from some rabbit skins which he had burned.

It was the pastor who discovered his wife's charred remains and reported to police.

Only a few bones and pieces of jewelry remained. The bones were in such a burnt condition that it was impossible for the coroner to determine whether the body had been hacked to pieces before the cremation began.

No one was at the parsonage during the afternoon. The children were at school and the pastor was out making calls. Rev. Sheatsley said he had intended going hunting yesterday but stayed at home until about 1:30 p. m. because his wife appeared to be extremely nervous and he didn't like to leave her.

The parsonage bore no evidence of struggle, authorities said.

Corn Prices Reach New High Level For Season

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18—Corn prices reached the highest level for the season on the Chicago board of trade today.

Heavy buying induced by reports of serious crop damage over the middle west corn belt sent July corn to $1.23 1/4, a gain of 3 1/4 cents during the day's trading. Wheat and oats, both of which were suffering setbacks, finally followed corn to higher levels but did not approach the season's record.

MANY CLAIMS ARE AGAINST ESTATES

Filed in Circuit Court as Civil Suits
in Order to Collect From Administrators

REPORT MUCH NEW BUSINESS

Judge Lowe of Lawrenceburg Appointed Special Judge—Several Cases Are Dismissed

Claims against estates, which have gone unpaid by the administrators in the course of settlement, have been filed in the circuit court as civil actions, subject for trial, and more than a dozen have been docketed by the clerk.

In court today the appointment of a special judge was decided in the case of Clyde Merritt against Hazle Merritt and others, a suit to obtain possession of a child, and in which Judge Sparks relinquished jurisdiction and submitted three judges as triers.

The names of Judge Rufus Hinchshaw of Newcastle and Judge Freemont Miller of Franklin were struck off, leaving the appointment to Judge Charles A. Lowe of Lawrenceburg, who will assume jurisdiction on the matter.

Judge Sparks also entered a ruling in the complaint pending of Walter E. Smith against George Billings estate, in which Carlton Chaney asked for the appointment of a receiver to manage the land. The court appointed Willard H. Amos, who gave bond in the sum of $73,000.

The case of Howell Brothers against Newman T. Miller, state fire marshal, a petition to review an order condemning the Grand Hotel building, has been dismissed by the plaintiffs.

In the action pending of the American Paper Products company of Carthage against the county board of commissioners, a suit on an account demanding $2,000, in which a change of judge was asked, the motion has been withdrawn, and the plaintiff in the case has been changed to John A. Tittsworth and Ley P. Rexford, receivers for the Carthage concern.

The case of Joseph A. McCorkle against the C. C. C. & St. L. railroad, a damage suit for $5,000 has also been dismissed.

Hazel M. Snider has filed suit for divorce from Olean Snider, alleging that the defendant has failed to provide for her and their child, and that

TO RESTORE PERSHING TO ACTIVE SERVICE

Bill to This Effect will be Sponsored by American Legion, Announced at National Headquarters

OTHER LEGISLATIVE PLANS

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—The American Legion's national legislative committee will sponsor a bill in congress to restore General Pershing to active service in the army. J. T. Taylor, chairman of the committee announced here today.

Taylor said the legion feels that Pershing's knowledge and experience should be utilized by the army.

The Legion as yet has no knowledge of the boom for Pershing for secretary of war to succeed Secretary Weeks, Taylor declared. The legislative program to be submitted by the legion before the coming session of congress was outlined by Taylor at a conference with state adjutants and commanders and national officers at national headquarters here.

In addition to proposal for restoration of Pershing to active duty, the legion will ask for enactment of a universal service bill to be effective a time of war.

This would provide for the drafting of capital, labor industrial and transportation facilities in addition to man power. The proposed bill would provide for the stabilization of prices to take the profits out of war.

James A. Drain, national commander, who has just returned from Washington, informed the legion that he had placed the legislative program before President Coolidge and urged its inclusion in the president's next message to congress.

New High Gasoline Consumption Record

THE Bureau of Mines (Washington, D.C.) places the domestic consumption of gasoline for August, 1924, at 819,467,892 gallons, an increase over July consumption of 22,001,302 gallons and the highest monthly consumption of gasoline ever reached in the United States.

Notwithstanding this unusual demand, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to keep the motorist of the Middle West constantly supplied with gasoline. This is the direct result of strict economy in production and the uninterrupted operation of a modern system of distribution.

The new high gasoline consumption record of August tells of hundreds of small business organizations made efficient by means of the automobile and an abundance of standard quality gasoline. It tells of thousands of families who have enjoyed healthful outings at minimum cost. It tells of hundreds of thousands of city children benefited by country air, because motor transportation carried them into open spaces at a trifling charge.

Giving people what they want, at a price they easily can afford to pay, is in itself a valuable service. This service is rendered to society by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Few of the hundreds of thousands of people who profit daily by the abundance and the wide distribution of gasoline, consider the intricate industrial problems solved before this service could be rendered. They are apt to think of gasoline as yielded freely by nature; a generous, unceasing gift to man.

On the contrary, no matter how freely crude oil is produced by nature, without the aid of science it does not yield the tremendous quantities of gasoline needed to supply the demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by originating processes which vastly increase the percentage of gasoline recovered from crude oil, serves mankind by helping to keep the supply equal to the demand. By devising a comprehensive distribution system and maintaining it in the face of every obstacle, this Company is able to make gasoline available to millions who could not afford to have the fuel shipped to them individually. Gasoline is as accessible to the farmers of the Middle West as it is to the city dweller.

INDIANA CROP REPORT

(Conditions November 1)

Corn production is estimated at 124,281,000 bushels, a gain of 9,050,000 bushels in the last month. Last year's crop was 192,616,000 bushels. Frost October 1, did not stop growth in the southern or the northeastern portions of the state so the warm weather following added materially to the production in these areas. Frosted corn dried out much better than ordinarily would have been the case making quality better than expected. The percentage merchantable is 57 compared with '8 last year and an average of 81. The backward condition of the corn crop and the favorable weather for drying have delayed husking probably two weeks. Stocks of old corn amount to 5 percent of last year's crop of 9,634,000 bushels. Last year there were 4,408,000 bushels on hand November 1.

Buckwheat averaged 16.5 bushels per acre compared with 17.0 bushels last year. This gives a total of 116,000 bushels or 14,000 bushels greater than last year. The quality this year is rated as 88 compared with 90 in 1923.

Potatoes yielded 100 bushels per acre as forecasted last month. The production 7,300,000 bushels is 554,000 less than last year. This is mainly due to the smaller acreage. The quality of potatoes is 89 or one point below last year.

The 3,000 acres of sweet potatoes produced 330,000 bushels or 110 bushels per acre. Last year's yield was 118 and the production 354,000 bushels. The quality is rated at 86 this season and was 91 a year ago.

The yield of tobacco is 40 pounds per acre greater than forecast but 30 pounds less than last year being reported at 870 pounds. The production is 18,270,000 pounds compared with 19,800,000 pounds in 1923, and a forecast last month of 17,420,000. The quality reported is 82 as against 84 a year ago.

Apples seem to have benefited by the unusual October weather. Reports indicate a production of 39 percent of normal where a month ago condition was 37. This makes the estimate 2,730,000 bushels instead of the 2,538,000 forecast last month. Production last year was 5,035,000 bushels. Quality is 73 or 3 points below last year.

Pears also improved the production being 50 percent of normal instead of the 47 percent expected a month ago. This gives 180,000 bushels this year compared with 334,000 bushels a year ago. The quality is only 85 where last year it was 89.

Clover seed yielded 0.8 bushels per acre. The acreage is larger than last year but at 61,000 is much below the average. The estimated production is 49,000 bushels compared with 32,000 last year.

The yield of cowpeas is slightly below last year, 9 bushels instead of 10. Soybeans are grown in the portions of the state where the season was more unfavorable and show a smaller proportionate yield. The yield is 11 bushels instead of 14 bushels.

Sorghum for sirup yielded 85 gallons per acre this year, compared with 80 last, or slightly above the average.

The total production of grapes was 65 percent of normal this year compared with 84 percent last year. Quality was 86 percent compared with 87 a year ago.

STATIC IS NOT AS BAD AS RADIO FANS PAINT IT

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Static may be a synonym for a cuss word with the radio fan but it is a benefactor also.

According to the Indiana Committee on Utility Information static is not as bad as the radio fans paint it.

The virtue of static consists in its use to prophesy weather.

According to announcement of the committee electric light power plants are learning to depend on static to warn them of approaching storms. To translate static's warnings, the utilities use ordinary principles of radio, and statics rarely deceives them.

BETTER AFTER OPERATION

Miss Alice Chadwick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Chadwick, is recovering as nicely as could be expected, it was announced today, following an operation for appendicitis last Friday at the Dr. Sexton hospital.

Rheumatism

"Yes! it's all gone."

DO NOT close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. You can get rid of your rheumatism by building up your blood power. It is a fact that rheumatism means "blood poverty." It is a fact with the increase of red cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S.S.S. will help Nature build these red blood cells! S.S.S. is one of the most powerful blood cleansers in existence. Its results in thousands of rheumatic cases have been nothing short of amazing! The medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable. This is very important to remember! What can be more inspiring, more wonderful than to see the shackles of pain released from your struggling body, swellings, lingering pains, stiffness of joints and muscles all disappear; your stomach made strong; your face pink with the old sweetheart glow, your blood enriched and your cheeks more plump as they used to be. You can do it! Take S.S.S., the great destroyer of rheumatic impurities.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

DEFENSE GIVES FIRST EVIDENCE

Thomas Merilees, Department of Justice Accountant, on Stand for Short Time

DEFENSE PLAN OUTLINED

Expects to Place Each of 16 Officials of Hawkins Mortgage Co., on Stand

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Introduction of defense testimony was expected to start today in the trial of 16 officials of the Hawkins Mortgage Co., of Portland, Ind., on charges of conspiracy to use the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Thomas Merilees, veteran accountant of the department of justice, and one of the government's chief witnesses, was to resume the stand for a short time before District Attorney Elliott rests his case.

The defense, it is understood, is planning to place each defendant on the stand. Twenty-five other defense witnesses have been called.

Merilees testified late yesterday that stock of the Hawkins company carried on its books at a value of $7,840,551 was worth only $742,222.

He said the assets of the company on May 23, 1923, were only $37,000 instead of $7,000,000 as claimed in financial statements of the corporation.

The witness declared examination of the books showed misrepresentation of values and juggled accounts throughout. He charged that an audit made by two Indianapolis accountants for Morton Hawkins president of the company, was juggled to conceal a deficit that increased from year to year.

Last May the total deficit of the Hawkins company amounted to $2,001,249, according to the testimony of Merilees.

Numerous items in the private audit of the Hawkins books were "deliberately misleading," he said,

characterizing the "deferred profit items in the audit as "deferred hopes."

All of the subsidiary loan societies of the Hawkins company were in financial difficulties most of the time, he said, only the loan societies at Terre Haute and Vincennes showing a profit for a short time.

Assets of the loan societies, he indicated, were drained away to the treasury of the Hawkins company through a "hold-out" fund that reached more than $900,000.

Merilees said examination of the books showed that at no time was the company able to pay dividends from earnings because it operated continually at a deficit.

This deficit, according to the testimony, amounted to $101,000 in 1919 and had grown to $1,664,000 in May 1923, and reached $2,001,000 when the affairs of the company were closed.

"If the books had been honestly kept they could not have helped but reveal a deficit," he said.

"Was there ever a day when the common stock of the Hawkins company was worth a penny?" District Attorney Elliott asked.

"No sir," replied Merilees. "Did they ever have assets of $9,000,000 or half of that?"

"Never."

Throughout a rigid cross examination by defense attorneys, Merilees stuck to every detail of his testi-

The Rev. O. P. Wamsley is assisting in a series of meetings at the Trinity Methodist church in Rockport, Ind., as a singing evangelist and personal worker. The pastor of the church is the Rev. F. T. Taylor, who was former pastor of the Glenwood M. E. church, this county.

On Sunday the church was rededicated, marking the culmination of a second improvement to the church within the past two years. The work started with the building of a basement under the church and after it was completed the members decided to build a new roof, new ceiling, and to redecorate by painting and otherwise beautifying the interior. The rededication service was in the form of an all day meeting with a sermon by the pastor in the morning and in the afternoon the Rev. J. M. ## Visiting the Schools

"Visit Your Schools" is one of the slogans of American Education, the message of which is being carried to every community of Rush county
this week.

The Rushville public schools are offering a unique opportunity for the school patrons of this city to heed the slogan by holding night school Wednesday evening. Schools will not be in session Wednesday afternoon and the regular periods
will be followed at night.

Parents who have been finding an alibi for not showing the proper cooperation by making an occasional visit to the schools where their children attend, can not dodge the issue now. It is squarely up to them to devote one evening to the business of seeing what they can do to help the school teacher educate their children and make them valuable
men and women.

The night school was announced
several days ahead so that there is no reason for conflicting engagements. Only sickness should be a legiti-mate excuse for any parent not being present at some school building in Rushville Wednesday night.

Parents should visit the schools
to get acquainted with the teacher and to understand thoroughly the conditions under which the schools are conducted.

Parents should visit the schools
because they are citizens and should know public institutions; they should visit the schools because they are supporting them and may be called on for more liberal support and should know what they are supporting.

The home and the school are jointly responsible for the training of boys and girls. The school can not assume full responsibility even for the success of pupils in the formal subjects. By visiting the schools parents can ascertain their share of responsibility and can more carefully evaluate the schools' share of the contract and can better understand the natural limitations of the schools' influence.

Parents should visit the schools
so that they may know exactly

Our National Greatness

With the appointment of a commission to study the needs of farmers and recommend legislation for their benefit, many of us are inclined to wonder whether any good is going to be accomplished.

With wheat, corn and cotton prices advancing, the farmers of the nation are well along the highway that leads to a return of normal conditions.

If the farmer is in such a fix that legislation only can save him, there is little use for the American people to make any further effort towards national greatness.

The farmer has his fat and lean periods, but there never was a time when a farmer was justified in being discouraged. Some farmers make a mess of farming just as manufacturers and retailers are failures. But the business can't be blamed for mistakes which attempt to make a living from it.

No farmer will ever be saved by legislation or government loans. His success or failure depends in large measure upon himself, his industry, his thrift and his frugality. The farmer who starts from the bottom can rely upon himself. He can study his business and by good management make money. There are plenty of examples to prove this.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican

Thursday, Nov. 18, 1909

Who ever heard of a youthful prodigy in a corn field? Well, here's one. Clyde Martin, the son of Mr.
and Mrs. R. E. Martin, shucked thirty-five bushels of corn at the farm, south of the city, in just three and one-half hours by the clock.
And this is not all he did. He also eribbed all of the corn which he shucked in that time. This is somewhat of a record when it is remembered that the youth is only thirteen years old.

The Manilla high school basket ball team will play the strong Mil-place Friday night. This will be the first time the two teams have ever met and a good game is expected.

Santa Claus will enlarge his route this year and will visit every boy paper and Santa Claus have settled on a plan by which every home in the city can be visited.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Are you buying fall furnishings? If so, do not forget the "New England atmosphere."

For the "New England atmosphere" is the latest of fashion's fads. It came into style on Nov.
4, when Calvin Coolidge, native
New Englander, descendant of Puritan stock who came over on the Mayflower, was elected president.

A presidential election, of late years, always has been followed by some new style note keyed to the persons or personalities of the new incumbents of the White House.

It was thus that "Alice blue" and "Harding blue" had their vogue as color schemes for feminine wear.

This time, however, it is the traits and traditions of Coolidge-his nasal drawl, his severe outlook on life, his "common sense," which are to be used in an effort to create anew a demand for things saving of the "good old days" when life was hard and chairs were too.

As these cannot be expressed in personal adornment, the note is to be sounded through house furnishings which will revert to styles even antedating the colonial in severity of line and lack of comfort.

If this "New England atmosphere" idea can be put across, it will mean big business for dealers in antiques, near and real, and for manufacturers of "genuine copies."

But it will be a hard life for carcasses accustomed to the yielding softness of overstuffed chairs and downy davenport.

That, however, is part of the idea. We will be told that individually, as well as a nation, we have become "too soft."

Life in a home furnished in the "New England atmosphere," under a government run by a reincarnation of the ancient New England spirit, will cause us to recognize realities again. That man wasn't intended to sit at ease in comfort, but to be up and doing.

Already one apartment hotel in Washington announces that the atmosphere of old New England may be had within its walls at from $165 to $220 per person per room per month.

Windsor chairs, gateleg tables, four-poster beds and crazy quilts are guaranteed to help all occupants to get back to the plain and simple life, such as is advocated and always has been practiced by the new chief executive.

THE Coolidge line, it is held, breaks for the first time since Dolly Madison a day the vogue of some new color combination to typify the fair sex in the White House.

Dolly Madison popularized
"Quaker gray." The "Alice blue" of the Roosevelt administration was followed by the "Helen pink" of Helen Taft, which gave way to "Nell rose" when the Wilson girls moved in.

That this color chain is not perpetuated for Mrs. Coolidge is perhaps due to the fact that she is still in mourning, wearing only black and white since the death of Calvin Jr. last July.

ANTI PROHIBITION advocates are watching carefully the case of Representative John Philip Hill of Baltimore on charges of violating the Volstead law by serving apple cider of more than one-half of 1 per cent kick at a recent garden party.

On the final outcome may depend the next move for some clearer definition if not modification, of just what fruit juices may or may not be allowed to do in the way of fermentation.

Charles S. Longacre, national secretary of the Religious Liberty Association, wonders if the prohibition trend may not carry us all the way back to the restrictions placed upon personal conduct by the blue laws of New Haven, which placed in the stocks husbands and wives guilty of kissing on Sunday.

Two sea captains, he says, just back from a long voyage, were so punished for kissing their wives upon their return.

The Hodge - Podge

By a Paragapher with a Soul

The man who built the electric chair in the Ohio state penitentiary was executed in it. This might be used as a current events lesson.

If everybody who thinks himself a genius, were really one, who would do the world's work?

Disputing the right-of-way of an interurban car leads all other fool stunts that candidates for the graveyard try.

People sometimes put over a bluff,
but generally they fall over them.

Some folks refuse to believe that George Washington never told a lie.
But they should remember George didn't live in the twentieth century.

Although it is regarded as good policy to stay out of the way of most things, we are willing to be hit by prosperity.

History is a great comfort. After reading it, we still have some hope for the present generation.

OLD TIME RIVALS READY FOR GAME

Indiana and Purdue Will Clash Saturday in Their Annual Gridiron Battle for Supremacy

FIRST GAME PLAYED 1892

Since Then Indiana Has Won 9, Purdue 12, and Three Scores Were Tied—Records Summarized

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 18—Indiana and Purdue, rivals for nearly a third of a century, will meet in their annual battle for gridiron supremacy, Saturday, Nov. 22, at the Ross-Ade bowl, new Purdue athletic field. The game will be the 23rd played between the two state institutions in their 31 years of athletic competition. In the 22 games played so far, Indiana has triumphed in nine while the Boilermakers have won 12. Three have resulted in ties.

The rivalry between the two schools has grown so intense at times that it was necessary to discontinue athletic relations, temporarily, until the feeling tempered. The first break came in 1894 and games were not continued again until 1897. The years 1899, 1903, 1906 and 1907 were also open years. No games were played in 1918 and 1919 because of the war.

By comparative scores the teams are about evenly matched this fall. Indiana has been defeated by Chicago, Northwestern and Louisiana and boasts a victory over Ohio State, in addition to early season wins over DePauw and Rose Poly. Purdue has won from Northwestern but has lost to Ohio State and Chicago. History shows that season's records means nothing when these traditional opponents meet. Always they rise to the heights when pitted against one another.

The record since 1892 is as follows:

1892—Indiana 0; Purdue 68
1893—Indiana 0; Purdue 64
1894—Indiana forfeited game to Purdue
1895—No game.
1896—No game.
1897—Indiana 0; Purdue 20
1898—Indiana 0; Purdue 14
1899—No game.
1900—Indiana 24; Purdue 5
1901—Indiana 11; Purdue 5
1902—Indiana 0; Purdue 39
1903—No game.
1904—Indiana 12; Purdue 27
1905—Indiana 11; Purdue 11
1906—No game.
1907—No game.
1908—Indiana 10; Purdue 4
1909—Indiana 36; Purdue 3
1910—Indiana 15; Purdue 0
1911—Indiana 5; Purdue 12
1912—Indiana 7; Purdue 34
1913—Indiana 7; Purdue 42
1914—Indiana 14; Purdue 23
1915—Indiana 0; Purdue 7
1916—Indiana 0; Purdue 0
1917—Indiana 37; Purdue 0
1918—No game.
1919—No game.
1920—Indiana 20; Purdue 7
1921—Indiana 3; Purdue 0
1922—Indiana 7; Purdue 7
1923—Indiana 3; Purdue 0

Games won, Indiana 9; Purdue 12; Ties 3. Total points scores, Indiana 217; Purdue 392.

The season's record for the two teams:

INDIANA

65 Rose Poly 0
21 DePauw 0
14 Louisiana 20
0 Chicago 23
7 Northwestern 17
12 Ohio State 7

PURDUE

21 Wabash 7
42 Rose Poly 3
6 Chicago 19
14 Northwestern 7
0 Ohio State 7
36 DePauw 0

NOTE

—This record does not include the game of Nov. 15.

Chicago—Coach Stagg told his Chicago gridders today that every team has "at least one good game" in its system in the course of a season and that Wisconsin was "due" to show it this Saturday. He warned them of the danger of losing the conference championship through over-confidence.

PURDUE BASKET MEN FACE HEAVY SCHEDULE

Most Difficult Card in Long Time is Arranged, With Six Western Conference Teams

SEVEN BIG TEN GAMES

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 18—What is believed to be the most difficult schedule ever faced by the Purdue basketball team within a decade has been announced today by the Purdue athletic department.

STATE PROGRAM FOR SAFETY IS OUTLINED

Governor Emmett F. Branch Tells Conference of Governors About Indiana Plans

SESSIONS AT JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 18—The state program for safety in Indiana was outlined by Governor Emmett F. Branch, in an address before the annual conference of governors here today.

He told of calling the safety conference last October and the suggestions for safety that were made there. He told of the resolutions adopted for safety after the conference by the safety committee.

"Grade crossing accident prevention is one of the big questions of the hour and no one recognizes it more than the people of Indiana," the Governor declared. "There is a widespread demand that something be done to at least lessen those accidents if not totally prevent them."

"Just how this can be done it is not only worthy of the best thought but of immediate remedial action of some kind whereby it is possible. What my recommendations to the next legislature on this subject will be, I am not sure at this time, but I expect to use the resolutions of our safety committee as a basis therefore."

VARSITY 'P' LUNCHEON

To Exhibit First Football Tactics Used by Purdue at Event

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 18—The presence of John B. Burris, Purdue's first football captain, and the exhibition of the first football tactics used by the Boilermakers will be two of the features of a luncheon Saturday, Nov. 22, for men who have won the varsity "P".

The luncheon will be held in the Memorial Union building on the campus, and it is to be one of the big features of the Purdue homecoming on that date. The homecoming is to be celebrated this year at the game with Indiana, which will dedicate Purdue's new Ross-Ade stadium.

Varsity "P" men only will be admitted to the luncheon and a special program has been prepared. It is expected that several hundred Purdue athletes will attend.

the public schools can serve the boys and girls better than the private schools. There should be an avenue, however, for parents to send their children to some school other than the public schools if they desired.

Super. Altman briefly outlined the steps in the development of education and recalled that the high school was not generally in use until late in the nineteenth century. He said that the establishment of the junior high school was for the purpose of closing the gap between the grades and the high school, where so many pupils were lost.

The speaker told of the platoon system that is being used in some large cities, and in closing, pointed out some of the needs of Rushville schools, and gave some figures showing the cost of education in Rushville.

SECTIONALS ON SATURDAY'S BILL

Two Important Championships Will be Decided When Southern and Pacific Teams Meet

THREE MORE FOR NOTRE DAME

Michigan and Iowa Meet in One of Important Games of The Western Conference

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Nov. 18—Two important sectional championships will be decided in the next games on the program which practically finish the 1924 football season.

The Pacific Coast title hangs on a game between California and Stanford at Berkeley and the southern crown depends upon the outcome of the game between Georgia and Alabama at Birmingham.

California and Stanford are unbeaten on the coast but California has been held to one tie by Washington.

California, however, may have the advantage of more work and certainly will not suffer from lack of confidence after escaping defeat for four years.

California has another game on the schedule against Pennsylvania on New Year's day, but it will not affect the standing of the coast conference.

Georgia is now leading the southern conference, having escaped defeat by a conference team. The only blemish on her record is a 7 to 6 defeat by Yale and there is nothing in that to cause shame.

Alabama was speeding like a sure champion until Centre beat them last Saturday but Centre is no longer in the conference. Georgia has a chance to get a clear claim on the southern title by beating Alabama and then winning her last game from Centre.

Notre Dame, undefeated through one of the hardest schedules in the country, has three more games to play and they do not look to be dangerous. Northwestern, the second conference team on the schedule, Carnegie Tech and Southern California present what little opposition Notre Dame may find in the way of a claim for a national championship.

After having downed the Army, Princeton, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Nebraska in succession, without really being extended, Notre Dame seems to have passed the hardest spots of the season. The squad is in good condition and seems to be in no danger of going stale.

Michigan and Iowa meet in one of the important games of the western conference and Illinois and Ohio in another. The standing in the conference may be all tangled up if these games do not run according to form.

Chicago, the conference leader, plays Wisconsin at Chicago and is expected to win although form seems to militate little among the Big Ten.

Dartmouth is through for the season in the east, but Pennsylvania has to beat Cornell on Thanksgiving day to retain any kind of a claim for the championship.

of the vicinity, who had gathered, worked furiously in an effort to release her, because the flames were gradually creeping back toward her.

Those who were present while the rescue work was going on say that the timely arrival of a state highway truck is the only thing that saved Mrs. Danielson from being perhaps fatally burned.

A chain was fastened to the burning machine by means of a hook and the weight of the wreckage removed from Mrs. Danielson's leg by the highway truck, and just as she was dragged from beneath the car, the hook straightened out and the wrecked automobile settled back in the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson and son were taken to the hospital by Mr. Offutt and Dewire remained at the scene of the accident. The gasoline leaked from the tank before the flames reached it.

The fire apparently started some place near the engine and it is thought that the oil caught fire. The automobile was a Revere, open model, with wire wheels and every inflammable part on it was burned.

Baggage in the car also was damaged by fire. There was a revolver and cartridges in the machine, and one of them exploded occasionally.

Terre Haute—Ike Middleton 25; Frank Cillin 23, and Tom Middleton 21, charged with bootlegger, gun-welding, and chicken stealing respectively, were all three arrested while living together in one house.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

Lafayette—After being idle since Friday, the Purdue team was given a light workout on Stuart Field yesterday in preparation for Indiana. The team is in good shape with the exception of Captain Claypool who is out with injuries.

Urbana—Though the experimental season is over, Bob Zuppke plans to try several "new stunts" against Ohio Saturday in the final game. Britton will be at guard, Green at Grange's place and Gallivan at quarter.

South Bend—A mild blizzard and four inches of snow stopped Notre Dame preparations for Northwestern yesterday, but scrimmages were to be held today in spite of weather conditions.

Columbus—Adding gloves to their heavy grid-iron attire, Ohio gridders ran through a long offensive drill. New plays were introduced which will be used against Illinois Saturday.

Madison—Enthusiasm over the chance of complete vindication despite its season's record of defeats, Wisconsin players buckled down in their preparations for Chicago in a long indoor drill yesterday. Victory over the Maroons, the Badgers figure would make up for any season mistakes.

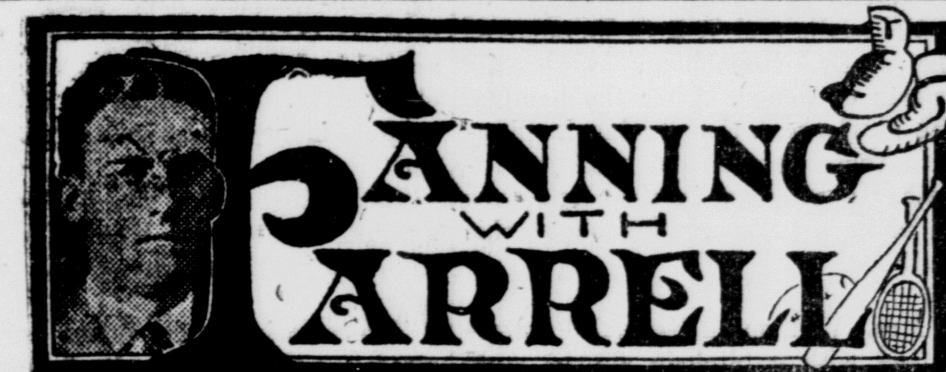

Ann Arbor—Discovery of a tackle and the perfection of several new plays are Michigan coaching problems for the week. Babcock, regular tackle will be out of the final game.

Bloomington—Indiana worked out on a wet field in rain and snow yesterday. Practice was light, however. The Purdue game Saturday is the biggest of the season.

Iowa City—A demonstration by Freshmen of what the scouts brought back from Columbus where they saw Michigan comprised first preparations for the Wolverines yesterday. Strengthening of the line is the major coaching problem.

New Haven—Two Yale players, Gale and Liman, were injured more seriously than at first thought and probably will not be able to play against Harvard. The rest of the team were given a short signal practice, followed by talks from the coaches on individual weaknesses displayed in the Princeton game.

Cambridge—A badly crippled Harvard varsity was driven indoors by the cold weather and was given a slight workout in the gym. Dr. Tommy Richards, surgeon for the team, said today that not in years had so many regulars been on the hospital list a week before the big game with Yale.

New East-West Games on Tap

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 18—Many new inter-sectional features are being planned for next year's football schedule. Some of the longest established rivalries may be abolished to make room for games between Eastern and Middlewestern teams, while the Southern invasion of the Northern and Eastern terrains may be more comprehensive than ever.

The inter-sectional idea of competition, as has been pointed out before, not only was responsible for the great growth of public interest in football, but it resulted in great good for football by spreading smart football all over the country from the East where once it was almost a local game.

Southern teams and Middlewestern teams learned the rudiments of football by watching and playing against Eastern teams and they went home and so improved on the lessons acquired that the East is almost in back water now.

Notre Dame is the greatest drawing card in the country and for that reason Notre Dame would be welcomed on most any Eastern schedule. The idea of a "drawing card" suggests commercialism, but the term in this case cannot be applied with its ordinary association. Football managers want big games not for personal profit but to raise the funds for the promotion and encouragement of many other sports for which football has to carry the financial load and furnish the money.

It seems quite certain that Notre Dame will be on the Pennsylvania schedule next year because Pennsylvania is willing to play in South Bend in 1926 and Knute Rockne, the guiding genius of Notre Dame football, wants home-and-home arrangements in the future.

Princeton may not be able to take a Notre Dame game next year and it is doubtful if Rockne could find a place on the schedule for Princeton if the Pennsylvania game is scheduled. Princeton would like to arrange a game with Dartmouth and that would make it necessary for Princeton to take Notre Dame too early in the season for Princeton's effort or too close to the "Big Three" games for good judgment.

Notre Dame has been able to arrange three Eastern games in the past few years because Carnegie

Tech was willing to take a date at the tail-end of the schedule. Princeton wouldn't take a date after her two "Big Three" games, and the peculiar arrangement of the "Big Three" schedule always forces Princeton to end the season a week before Harvard and Yale.

Evanson—Snow drove the Purple football players inside the gymnasium where Notre Dame plays were explained in detail. Coaches expect to teach them more about Irish style today when they scrimmage against freshmen.

WOMEN TO TAKE AN ACTIVE PART

Four Organizations Announce They Will Fight for or Against Measures in Indiana Legislature

"BLUE LAWS" ONE MEASURE

W. C. T. U. Organization is Supporting Censorship of Motion Pictures in Next Session

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Four Indiana women's organizations have announced today they will take an active part fighting for and against measures to be presented at the next session of the legislature.

These organizations are the State Legislative Council of Women, The State Federation of Clubs, the League of Women Voters, and the W. C. T. U.

One of the principal measures of interest to the women's organizations is the child labor amendment enacted by the last session of Congress which will come before the assembly. This measure will be explained at a meeting early in December of the Legislative Council of Women by Owen Lovejoy.

The organizations will give their attention to measures dealing with prohibition and the "blue laws." The W. C. T. U. is prepared to lead an attack on any attempt to modify laws on either of these subjects. This organization is trying to get better observance of the laws we have not rather than to make them more stringent.

The State Federation of Clubs is backing a bill being written by the state board of health to give any county or city of more than a population to be designated, permission to establish a full-time health department. The board is also drafting a eugenics bill which the federation is backing. The bill would create a state eugenics to collect data and study persons who might become parents of socially inadequate children.

The bill provides a hearing before a judge or, if the person demands it, a jury who could order sterilization.

The measure, according to Dr. William F. King, secretary of the state board of health, is purely eugenical and not punitive. It would make no provision for presentation of physical fitness before a marriage license is issued.

The W. C. T. U. is supporting censorship of motion pictures.

Besides the measures already mentioned the women are preparing themselves to fight any attempts to repeal welfare measures for women and children, the school attendance or probation laws, and the primary law.

Anderson—Ray Gibbons, Madison county Republican chairman, has been presented with a handsome Masonic ring as a reward for the successful election campaign.

American Legion Making Arrangements for Five Million Dollar Campaign for War Orphans

5,000 CHILDREN NEED CARE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Preparations were being completed today at national headquarters of the American Legion for a $5,000,000 endowment fund campaign for orphaned children of the war.

The campaign, carrying out the policy adopted at the national convention in St. Paul, was given the approval of James A. Drain, national commander, and William Metcalf, Topeka, Kans., John R. McQuigg, Cleveland, and Edgar B. Dunlap, Gainesville, Ga., members of the national finance committee at a conference here yesterday.

Five thousand orphaned children of the war are in need of care at the present moment, Mark McKee, of Detroit, a member of the child welfare committee, told members of the finance committee.

McKee said the Legion's two bulletins for orphaned children at Otter Lake, Mich., and Independence, Kans., were already overcrowded.

Present facilities of the Legion for caring for the orphans will start and for no more expansion, he said, in urging that the $5,000,000 endowment drive be launched immediately.

Movies

Lincoln Lives Again

Abraham Lincoln lives again in the motion picture version of the life of the immortal president, which opened a four day engagement at the Princess theatre Monday. A special matinee for school children was given at four o'clock this afternoon.

No school child should fail to see the pictured story of the struggles of the stalwart Lincoln, his devotion to an ideal and his ultimate triumph, only to be stricken down by an assassin's bullet at a time when his kindly sympathy would have been invaluable in the reconstruction of the bleeding nation.

The lesson in American history, the patriotic ideals that it teaches, make the motion picture worth more than the knowledge of the Emancipator's life than can be gained from reading history.

The motion picture takes him from youth to his death bed, depicting his early trials, when he was compelled to subdue the bully at New Salem, Ill., and presents a vivid picture of his love affair with Anne Rutledge. His devoted love for his little boys, three of whom died before reaching manhood, is made real in the picture. The trials which he underwent as president, when ridicule was heaped upon him and the Union seemed on the verge of defeat, as shown by the picture, leave a more lasting impression upon the mind than all of the reading of the life of Lincoln that might be done.

4 BARELY ESCAPE DEATH IN MISHAP

Automobile Occupied by Chicago
People Turns Over West of Rush-
ville and Catches Fire

WOMAN IS WORST INJURED

Mrs. Fred Danielson Suffers Broken
Leg and Slight But Extensive
Burns—Pinned Under Car

Four people escaped death this morning when an automobile skidded in loose gravel on the state road three miles west of Rushville, turned over and burned up.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Danielson of Oak Park, Chicago, were the most seriously hurt, and their son Earl, a young man, was only slightly injured. Ray Dewire, who was driving the machine, was not injured.

Mrs. Danielson's left leg was broken just below the knee and she suffered from light but extensive burns, which covered portions of her back, side, one arm, face and head. Part of her hair was burned off.

Mr. Danielson has a superficial scalp wound, probably caused by glass, an injury to his chest and slight burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson were taken to the Dr. Sexton hospital for treatment. Mrs. Danielson was suffering from shock when she reached the hospital.

The party was enroute from Chicago to Miami, Florida. Dewire who was driving the car, said that he passed a machine going west and went around another car going in the same direction as theirs, when the front wheels hit some loose gravel on the north side of the road and he lost control.

The machine careened through the air and fell upside down in the ditch headed west, in directly the opposite direction it was going. The car was being driven at a high rate of speed, it is said.

Ollie Offutt of Arlington, who was coming to Rushville in an automobile witnessed the accident. He stated that the automobile burst into flames the minute it settled on the ground.

The driver was thrown out and Mr. Danielson and his son crawled out from under the mass of twisted wreckage, but Mrs. Danielson was pinned under the body of the car.

The flames were spreading rapidly and with six men lifting, the weight of the machine could not be raised so that Mrs. Danielson could be freed.

A Ford truck that was passing, was unable to drag the machine off of Mrs. Danielson's leg and farmers continued on Page Five

ACCIDENT VICTIMS SLOWLY RECOVERING

Persons Injured in Collision Sunday
Near Here, are Getting Along
Well as Expected

WOMAN REMAINS IN HOSPITAL

The automobile accident victims of Sunday afternoon, were reported today to be getting along as nicely as could be expected, with Mrs. Dossie Callahan still taking treatment in the hospital at Shelbyville, and Mrs. Madeline Callahan, her mother-in-law, recovering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clem Gardner, southwest of here.

The two women were the most seriously injured of eleven persons, when machines driven by Dossie Callahan of near here and John Kirby of Greensburg, ran together at a cross roads on the Winship pike south of here.

Mr. Callahan was bruised and cut, and suffered a broken collar bone, and their four children escaped with minor cuts.

His mother, Mrs. Madeline Callahan, who is 68 years of age, was bruised about the body and hips, and was reported as having spent a good night. Mr. Callahan's wife was taken to the hospital at Shelbyville for an examination and treatment, and her condition was also reported today as being satisfactory.

The four young men from Greensburg escaped without any serious injuries. Each machine was badly damaged.

Season's First Blanket of the
"Beautiful" was Sufficient to be Recorded

WARMER WEATHER IN SIGHT

Rising Mercury Predicted Wednesday,
With Coldest Last Night
Registering 23 Degrees

Rising temperature is in sight for Wednesday, according to the weather bureau in their report today, predicting generally fair tonight and tomorrow.

The mercury last night did not drop a low as the night before by one degree, with 23 being the coldest reached during the night, according to Elwood Kirkwood of Manzy, in charge of the government station. The night before the coldest was 22 degrees.

He also reported that the snow fall recorded an inch yesterday afternoon. With the mercury at 22 Monday morning, the temperature remained low all day, and the highest reached was 34 degrees shortly before the snow fall in the afternoon. Today the mercury was going up gradually in the sun, but little moderation was seen in the protected places.

Some of the largest snow storms and blizzards on record in the past have occurred during the months of October and November, according to Mr. Kirkwood, who has kept the records for more than 30 years.

The first snow fall of the winter arrived about a month earlier than it did last year, although records available for the past 12 years, show that the first snow has been recorded on several years in October.

The record of the first snow has been a hobby at the local postoffice, where a card is kept, and the date of the first appearance of snow on the ground has been kept since 1913. In 1917, the beginning of the extreme cold winter that will be remembered by all, the first snow fell October 12, and from then on, the mercury hung low.

The dates of the first snow, when it could be seen on the ground are as follows: October 20, 1913; October 26, 1914; November 15, 1915; October 20, 1916; October 12, 1917; December 25, 1918; December 5, 1919; November 15, 1920; November 9, 1921; November 24, 1922; December 12, 1923; November 17, 1924.

Still in Cold's Grip

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Indiana continued today in the icy grip of the first cold wave of the season which was ushered in with a sudden drop in temperature and snowfall throughout the state yesterday.

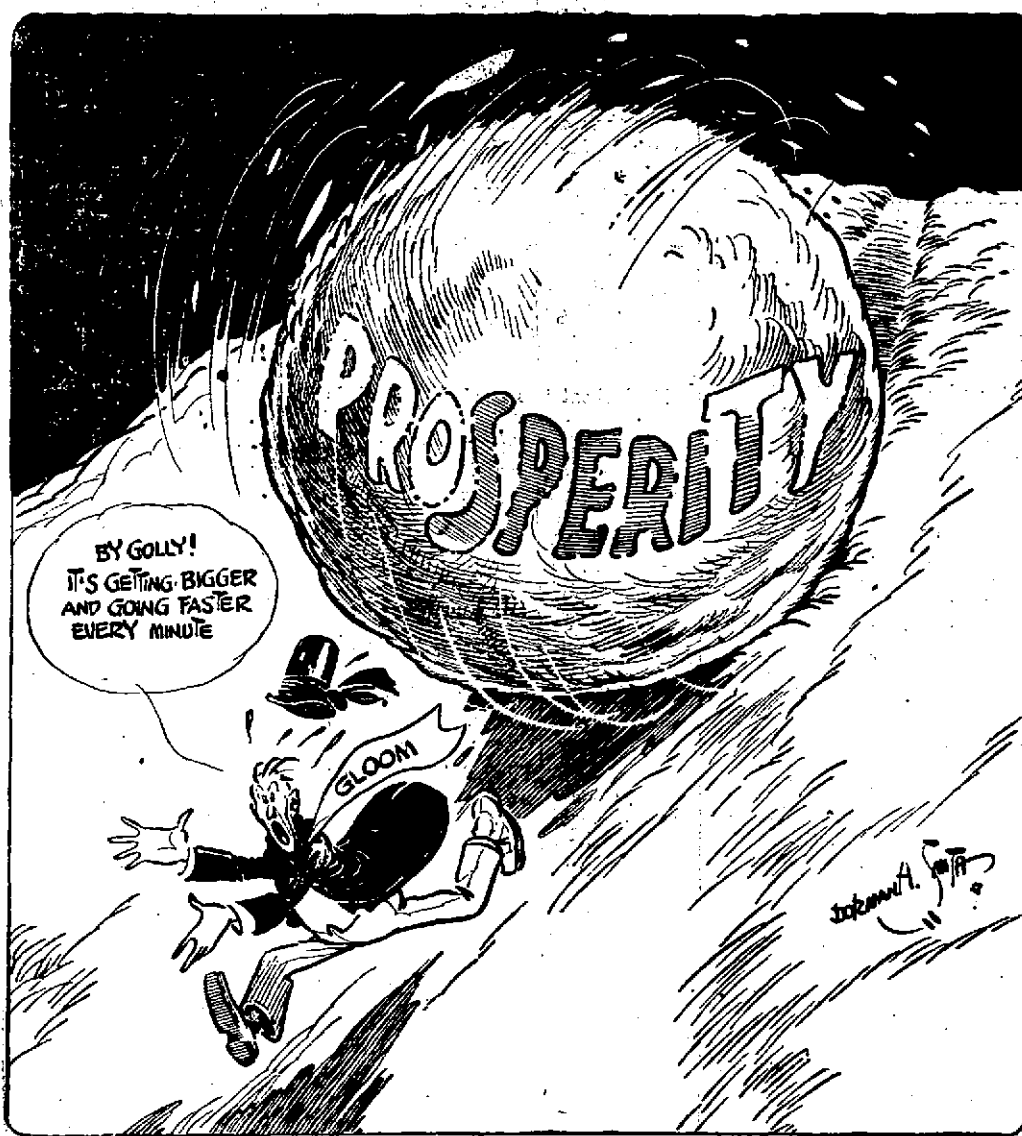

The unexpected advent of winter weather after the unusually warm weather of the past month brought suffering to hundreds in the tenement districts of the cities and charitable and welfare organizations were being called upon for aid.

Coal dealers reported a flood of orders as householders hastened to lay in a supply of fuel.

The snowfall was general throughout the state yesterday, ranging from six inches at Goshen to a light

EDUCATION WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Observance of Event is Carried Out
in Three Township Schools' Monday
With Speakers

TO CONTINUE ALL WEEK

Speakers Obtained for Each Community,
with General Observance
Here Wednesday Night

American Education Week is being observed in the various sections of Rush county with speakers assigned for school and community meetings, and the observance of the event will be held in Rushville city Wednesday night, when the public schools will be in full operation after the supper hour.

School patrons are urged to take advantage of the night school program and visit the schools, see how they are operated under the every day system used in the schools. The public schools, including the grades and high high-school, will not be open Wednesday afternoon, and the regular afternoon classes will be carried out after the supper hour, beginning at seven o'clock.

In the rural schools of the county, speakers have been obtained for meetings, at which the pupils and school patrons are urged to gather and hear the addresses on the observance of educational week.

The first of these meetings was held Monday in three sections. At Webb the Rev. Gibson Wilson was the speaker last night, and at Center, Mr. D. VanMatre, county agent was the speaker. F. C. Landrus spoke at the Shively's Corner school in the afternoon. The Milroy meeting, scheduled for last night, was not held because John H. Kiplinger, the speaker, was unable to attend.

The Milroy meeting has been changed until Thursday afternoon when Prof. Sherwood of Franklin, the newly elected state superintendent will speak. He will be in Rushville at noon to address the Kiwanis club and after speaking in Milroy, he will speak to a meeting at Carthage at night.

The program today included speakers at three schools tonight. John A. Tittsworth was to speak at New Salem, H. B. Allman at Moscow and the Rev. H. W. Harrett at Circleville. The meeting at Glenwood was postponed until Thursday night, when H. B. Allman will be the speaker.

For Wednesday, B. D. Farthing will speak at Gines at night. Dr. Ramsey of the state department will

First Snow Brings The First Santa Claus Letter

The first snow of the winter, which began falling Monday afternoon, brought the first Santa Claus letter to the Daily Republican office. The snow, and the cold weather that preceded it, evidently inspired the thought of Santa Claus, for a little girl sent her big sister to the Republican office about four o'clock with her message to Kris Kingle.

Another little girl ran after Ben Sparks, city letter carrier, for almost a block, in order to give him a letter to Santa Claus. It was not legible, but Santa Claus will have no trouble understanding it.

The Daily Republican will begin publishing the Santa Claus letters as soon as a number of them are received.

KIWANIS CLUBS OF STATE ASKED TO HELP

J. T. Arbuckle, District Governor,
Urges Co-operation to Increase
Safety at Crossings

'SAFETY WEEK' RECOMMENDED

J. T. Arbuckle of this city, district governor of Indiana Kiwanis clubs, has addressed a letter to clubs of the state, urging them to co-operate in the movement to bring about greater safety at grade crossings, which began with the safety conference held recently in Indianapolis. Mr. Arbuckle and O. B. Iles of Indianapolis attended the conference as representatives of the Kiwanis clubs of Indiana.

Mr. Arbuckle recalls in the letter that the Kiwanis clubs performed a great service when they put on a "Courtesy Week" some time ago and that an equally great service can be rendered with a campaign of education in regard to safety at railroad and interurban crossings. This can be accomplished through the schools, the letter to clubs points out, and methods whereby dangerous crossings may be eliminated are also cited.

The district governor urges clubs to take the leadership in their respective communities and bring together the proper officials, and assure them of the hearty support of Kiwanians in any effort to reduce hazards at grade crossings.

In closing, he suggests that each club, within the month, select its own date and fashion its own program for a "Safety Week."

LIKENS SCHOOLS TO A CORPORATION

Supt. H. B. Allman Delivers American
Education Week Address Before
Rotary Club

EVERYBODY A STOCKHOLDER

Not Perogative of Government to Say Every Child Shall go Through
Public Schools

The public schools was likened to a corporation in an American Education Week address before the Rotary club today noon by H. B. Allman, superintendent of the Rushville schools. He pointed out that the public schools were like a corporation in that it was composed of stockholders, but the school, unlike the average corporation, has every individual as a shareholder and has to deal with everyone. This makes the problem of the public school, he showed, distinctly different.

David S. McIntosh, supervisor of music in the Rushville public schools sang two selections, "Shipmates of Mine" and "Yesterday and Today", with piano accompaniment by Miss Virginia Lucas, and received enthusiastic applause.

E. B. Thomas, member of the San Juan, Porto Rico, Rotary club, and honorary member of the Rushville club, was a visitor, and Clifford S. Lee, of New York City, former Rushville boy and at one time editor of the Daily Republican, was a guest at the meeting.

"Education was first viewed as religious training and under primitive conditions, it was a simple matter," Supt. Allman said "Think what a far step to adult citizenship it is today."

"Education is something that begins with the first faint wail of the infant and continues until the last fleeting breath, for every day we learn something. Education is not something that begins with the schools and ends with the schools."

"The schools have no corner on education. The public schools have practically a monopoly, but there are many fine private and parochial schools. And I am not sure but that it would be a misfortune if the public schools did have a corner on education."

"There has been some agitation along this line, but I must confess I am not in sympathy with it. It is scarcely the prerogative of government to say every child shall go through the public schools and take the course mapped out for them. But taking the country over, I believe

PASTOR IS FREE FOR THE PRESENT

R. V. Sheatsley of Columbus, O.,
Given Severe Grilling in Connection
With Wife's Death

BODY BURNED IN FURNACE

Charred Remains Discovered by Pastor and Matter Reported to Police

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 18—Insisting that he is as much baffled by the mystery of his wife's death as are the police, Rev. R. V. Sheatsley, pastor of the Lutheran church, in the fashionable Bexley residential section, was dismissed temporarily today after a severe grilling by the county prosecutor.

The pastor went immediately to the mortuary where his wife's charred remains, which he discovered in the parsonage furnace, were being prepared for burial.

The death of Mrs. Sheatsley shocked the exclusive residential district of Bexley where her husband is pastor of its leading church.

Coroner Murphy wanted to issue a verdict of suicide and let it go at that, but the prosecutor insisted that the whole thing be opened up and made the subject of a thorough investigation.

"It is ridiculous that Mrs. Sheatsley could have crawled in on that growing bed of coals and pulled the door shut behind her," King said.

At the police station Rev. Sheatsley told the same story he had told the coroner earlier in the day. He arrived home last night after calling on members of his congregation and found his older son, Milton, investigating the odor of burning flesh.

The boy said he had looked in the furnace several times before his father came home but that he thought the odor came from some rabbit skins which he had burned.

It was the pastor who discovered his wife's charred remains and reported to police.

Only a few bones and pieces of jewelry remained. The bones were in such a burnt condition that it was impossible for the coroner to determine whether the body had been hacked to pieces before the cremation began.

No one was at the parsonage during the afternoon. The children were at school and the pastor was out making calls. Rev. Sheatsley said he had intended going hunting yesterday but stayed at home until about 1:30 p. m., because his wife appeared to be extremely nervous and he didn't like to leave her.

The parsonage bore no evidence of struggle, authorities said.

Corn Prices Reach New High Level For Season

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18—Corn prices reached the highest level for the season on the Chicago board of trade today.

Heavy buying induced by reports of serious crop damage over the middle west corn belt sent July corn to $1.23 1/2, a gain of 3 1/2 cents during the day's trading. Wheat and oats, both of which were suffering setbacks, finally followed corn to higher levels but did not approach the season's record.

MANY CLAIMS ARE AGAINST ESTATES

Filed in Circuit Court as Civil Suits
in Order to Collect From Administrators

REPORT MUCH NEW BUSINESS

Judge Lowe of Lawrenceburg Appointed Special Judge—Several Cases Are Dismissed

Claims against estates, which have gone unpaid by the administrators in the course of settlement, have been filed in the circuit court as civil actions, subject for trial, and more than a dozen have been docketed by the clerk.

In court today the appointment of a special judge was decided in the case of Clyde Merritt against Hazle Merritt and others, a suit to obtain possession of a child, and in which Judge Sparks relinquished jurisdiction and submitted three judges as triers.

The names of Judge Rufus Hinshaw of Newcastle and Judge Freemont Miller of Franklin were struck off, leaving the appointment to Judge Charles A. Lowe of Lawrenceburg, who will assume jurisdiction on the matter.

Judge Sparks also entered a ruling in the complaint pending of Walter E. Smith against George Billings estate, in which Carlton Chaney asked for the appointment of a receiver to manage the land. The court appointed Willard H. Amos, who gave bond in the sum of $73,000.

The case of Howell Brothers against Newman T. Miller, state fire marshal, a petition to review an order condemning the Grand Hotel building, has been dismissed by the plaintiffs.

In the action pending of the American Paper Products company of Carthage against the county board of commissioners, a suit on an account demanding $2,000, in which a change of judge was asked, the motion has been withdrawn, and the plaintiff in the case has been changed to John A. Tittsworth and Ley P. Rexford, receivers for the Carthage concern.

The case of Joseph A. McCorkle against the C. C. & St. L. railroad, a damage suit for $5,000 has also been dismissed.

Hazel M. Snider has filed suit for divorce from Orvan Snider, alleging that the defendant has failed to provide for her and their child, and that

TO RESTORE PERSHING TO ACTIVE SERVICE

Bill to This Effect will be Sponsored by American Legion, Announced at National Headquarters

OTHER LEGISLATIVE PLANS

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—The American Legion's national legislative committee will sponsor a bill in congress to restore General Pershing to active service in the army. J. T. Taylor, chairman of the committee announced here today.

Taylor said the legion feels that Pershing's knowledge and experience should be utilized by the army.

The Legion as yet has no knowledge of the boom for Pershing for secretary of war to succeed Secretary Weeks, Taylor declared. The legislative program to be submitted by the legion before the coming session of congress was outlined by Taylor at a conference with state adjutants and commanders and national officers at national headquarters here.

In addition to proposal for restoration of Pershing to active duty, the legion will ask for enactment of a universal service bill to be effective in time of war.

This would provide for the drafting of capital, labor industrial and transportation facilities in addition to man power. The proposed bill would provide for the stabilization of prices to take the profits out of war.

James A. Drain, national commander, who has just returned from Washington, informed the legion that he had placed the legislative program before President Coolidge and urged its inclusion in the president's next message to congress.

New High Gasoline Consumption Record

THE Bureau of Mines (Washington, D.C.) places the domestic consumption of gasoline for August, 1924, at 819,467,892 gallons, an increase over July consumption of 22,001,302 gallons and the highest monthly consumption of gasoline ever reached in the United States.

Notwithstanding this unusual demand, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to keep the motorist of the Middle West constantly supplied with gasoline. This is the direct result of strict economy in production and the uninterrupted operation of a modern system of distribution.

The new high gasoline consumption record of August tells of hundreds of small business organizations made efficient by means of the automobile and an abundance of standard quality gasoline. It tells of thousands of families who have enjoyed healthful outings at minimum cost. It tells of hundreds of thousands of city children benefited by country air, because motor transportation carried them into open spaces at a trifling charge.

Giving people what they want, at a price they easily can afford to pay, is in itself a valuable service. This service is rendered to society by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Few of the hundreds of thousands of people who profit daily by the abundance and the wide distribution of gasoline, consider the intricate industrial problems solved before this service could be rendered. They are apt to think of gasoline as yielded freely by nature; a generous, unceasing gift to man.

On the contrary, no matter how freely crude oil is produced by nature, without the aid of science it does not yield the tremendous quantities of gasoline needed to supply the demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by originating processes which vastly increase the percentage of gasoline recovered from crude oil, serves mankind by helping to keep the supply equal to the demand. By devising a comprehensive distribution system and maintaining it in the face of every obstacle, this Company is able to make gasoline available to millions who could not afford to have the fuel shipped to them individually. Gasoline is as accessible to the farmers of the Middle West as it is to the city dweller.

INDIANA CROP REPORT

(Conditions November 1)

Corn production is estimated at 124,281,000 bushels, a gain of 9,059,000 bushels in the last month. Last year's crop was 192,616,000 bushels. Frost October 1, did not stop growth in the southern or the northeastern portions of the state so the warm weather following added materially to the production in these areas. Frosted corn dried out much better than ordinarily would have been the case making quality better than expected. The percentage merchantable is 57 compared with 58 last year and an average of 81. The backward condition of the corn crop and the favorable weather for drying have delayed husking probably two weeks. Stocks of old corn amount to 5 percent of last year's crop of 9,631,000 bushels. Last year there were 1,408,000 bushels on hand November 1.

Buckwheat averaged 16.5 bushels per acre compared with 17.0 bushels last year. This gives a total of 116,000 bushels or 14,000 bushels greater than last year. The quality this year is rated as 88 compared with 90 in 1923.

Potatoes yielded 100 bushels per acre as forecasted last month. The production 7,300,000 bushels is 554,000 less than last year. This is mainly due to the smaller acreage. The quality of potatoes is 89 or one point below last year.

The 3,000 acres of sweet potatoes produced 330,000 bushels or 110 bushels per acre. Last year's yield was 118 and the production 354,000 bushels. The quality is rated at 86 this season and was 91 a year ago.

The yield of tobacco is 40 pounds per acre greater than forecast but 30 pounds less than last year being reported at 870 pounds. The production is 18,270,000 pounds compared with 19,800,000 pounds in 1923, and a forecast last month of 17,420,000. The quality reported is 82 as against 84 a year ago.

Apples seem to have benefited by the unusual October weather. Reports indicate a production of 39 percent of normal where a month ago condition was 37. This makes the estimate 2,730,000 bushels instead of the 2,538,000 forecast last month. Production last year was 3,035,000 bushels. Quality is 73 or 3 points below last year.

Pears also improved the production being 50 percent of normal instead of the 47 percent expected a month ago. This gives 180,000 bushels this year compared with 334,000 bushels a year ago. The quality is only 85 where last year it was 89.

Clover seed yielded 0.8 bushels per acre. The acreage is larger than last year but at 61,000 is much below the average. The estimated production is 49,000 bushels compared with 32,000 last year.

The yield of cowpeas is slightly below last year, 9 bushels instead of 10. Soybeans are grown in the portions of the state where the season was more unfavorable and show a smaller proportionate yield. The yield is 11 bushels instead of 14 bushels.

Sorghum for sirup yielded 85 gallons per acre this year, compared with 80 last, or slightly above the average.

The total production of grapes was 65 percent of normal this year compared with 84 percent last year. Quality was 86 percent compared with 87 a year ago.

STATIC IS NOT AS BAD AS RADIO FANS PAINT IT

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Static may be a synonym for a curse word with the radio fan but it is a benefactor also.

According to the Indiana Committee on Utility Information static is not as bad as the radio fans paint it. The virtue of static consists in its use to prophesy weather.

According to announcement of the committee electric light power plants are learning to depend on static to warn them of approaching storms. To translate static's warnings, the utilities use ordinary principles of radio, and statics rarely deceives them.

Or you can visit Florida first and return via Pensacola and Florence, from the latter the shortest trip is made to the other Gulf Coast points. The principal ones are shown on the map.

Diverse Routes to FLORIDA and Gulf Coast Region

are numerous splendid golf courses, as well as tennis courts; bridge paths; and fishing, sail-

BETTER AFTER OPERATION

Miss Alice Chadwick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Chadwick, is recovering as nicely as could be expected, it was announced today, following an operation for appendicitis last Friday at the Dr. Sexton hospital.

Rheumatism

"Yes! it's all gone."
DO NOT close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. You can get rid of your rheumatism by building up your blood power. It is a fact that rheumatism means "blood poverty." It is a fact with the increase of red cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S.S.S. will help Nature build these red-blood-cells! S.S.S. is one of the most powerful blood cleansers in existence. Its results in thousands of rheumatic cases have been nothing short of amazing! The medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable. This is very important to remember! What can be more inspiring, more wonderful than to see the shackles of pain released from your struggling body, swellings, lingering pains, stiffness of joints and muscles all disappear; your stomach made strong; your face pink with the old sweatshirt glow, your blood enriched and your cheeks more plump as they used to be. You can do it! Take S.S.S., the great destroyer of rheumatic impurities.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lasy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

DEFENSE GIVES FIRST EVIDENCE

Thomas Merilees, Department of Justice Accountant, on Stand for Short Time

DEFENSE PLAN OUTLINED

Expects to Place Each of 16 Officials of Hawkins Mortgage Co. on Stand

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Introduction of defense testimony was expected to start today in the trial of 16 officials of the Hawkins Mortgage Co., of Portland, Ind., on charges of conspiracy to use the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Thomas Merilees, veteran accountant of the department of justice, and one of the government's chief witnesses, was to resume the stand for a short time before District Attorney Elliott rests his case.

The defense, it is understood, is planning to place each defendant on the stand. Twenty-five other defense witnesses have been called.

Merilees testified late yesterday that stock of the Hawkins company carried on its books at a value of $7,840,551 was worth only $742.22.

He said the assets of the company on May 23, 1923, were only $37,000 instead of $7,000,000 as claimed in financial statements of the corporation.

The witness declared examination of the books showed misrepresentation of values and juggled accounts throughout. He charged that an audit made by two Indianapolis accountants for Morton Hawkins president of the company, was juggled to conceal a deficit that increased from year to year.

Last May the total deficit of the Hawkins company amounted to $2,001,249, according to the testimony of Merilees.

Numerous items in the private audit of the Hawkins books were "deliberately misleading," he said,

characterizing the "deferred profit items in the audit as "deferred hopes."

All of the subsidiary loan societies of the Hawkins company were in financial difficulties most of the time, he said, only the loan societies at Terre Haute and Vincennes showing a profit for a short time.

Assets of the loan societies, he indicated, were drained away to the treasury of the Hawkins company through a "hold-out" fund that reached more than $800,000.

Merilees said examination of the books showed that at no time was the company able to pay dividends from earnings because it operated continually at a deficit.

This deficit, according to the testimony, amounted to $101,000 in 1919 and had grown to $1,664,000 in May 1923, and reached $2,001,000 when the affairs of the company were closed.

"If the books had been honestly kept they could not have helped but reveal a deficit," he said.

"Was there ever a day when the common stock of the Hawkins company was worth a penny?" District Attorney Elliott asked.

"No sir," replied Merilees. "Did they ever have assets of $9,000,000 or half of that?"

"Never."

Throughout a rigid cross examination by defense attorneys, Merilees stuck to every detail of his testi-

H.L.P.S. RE-DIGIT: CHURCH

O. P. Wamsley is Assisting Former Glenwood Pastor at Rockport

The Rev. O. P. Wamsley is assisting in a series of meetings at the Trinity Methodist church in Rockport, Ind., as a singing evangelist and personal worker. The pastor of the church is the Rev. F. T. Taylor, who was former pastor of the Glenwood M. E. church, this county.

On Sunday the church was rededicated, marking the culmination of a second improvement to the church within the past two years. The work started with the building of a basement under the church and after it was completed the members decided to build a new roof, new ceiling, and to redecorate by painting and otherwise beautifying the interior. The rededication service was in the form of an all day meeting with a sermon by the pastor in the morning and in the afternoon the Rev. J. M. Walker of Evansville, and formerly district superintendent of Connersville district, delivered a sermon on "Discover Your Talent."

Visiting the Schools

"Visit Your Schools" is one of the

slogans of American Education, the

message of which is being carried

to every community of Rush county

this week.

The Rushville public schools are offering a unique opportunity for the school patrons of this city to

heed the slogan by holding night

school Wednesday evening. Schools

will not be in session Wednesday

afternoon and the regular periods

will be followed at night.

Parents who have been finding an

alibi for not showing the proper cooperation by making an occasional

visit to the schools where their

children attend, can not dodge the

issue now. It is squarely up to them

to devote one evening to the business of seeing what they can do to help the school teacher educate their children and make them valuable

men and women.

The night school was announced

several days ahead so that there is no reason for conflicting engagements. Only sickness should be a legitimate excuse for any parent not being present at some school building in Rushville Wednesday night.

Parents should visit the schools

to get acquainted with the teacher

and to understand thoroughly the

conditions under which the schools

are conducted.

Parents should visit the schools

because they are citizens and should

know public institutions; they should

visit the schools because they are

supporting them and may be called

on for more liberal support and

should know what they are supporting.

The home and the school are

jointly responsible for the training

of boys and girls. The school can

not assume full responsibility even

for the success of pupils in the for-what the children are doing and so they may become familiar with modern schools. Educational methods have moved so rapidly in the past 10 years that few parents realize the advances that have been made.

Our National Greatness

With the appointment of a commission to study the needs of farmers and recommend legislation for their benefit, many of us are inclined to wonder whether any good is going to be accomplished.

With wheat, corn and cotton prices advancing, the farmers of the nation are well along the highway that leads to a return of normal conditions.

If the farmer is in such a fix that legislation only can save him, there is little use for the American people to make any further effort towards national greatness.

The farmer has his fat and lean periods, but there never was a time when a farmer was justified in being discouraged. Some farmers make a mess of farming just as manufacturers and retailers are failures. But the business can't be blamed for misfits who attempt to make a living from it.

No farmer will ever be saved by legislation or government loans. His success or failure depends in large measure upon himself, his industry, his thrift and his frugality. The farmer who starts from the bottom can rely upon himself. He can study his business and by good management make money. There are plenty of examples to prove this.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican

Thursday, Nov. 18, 1909

Who ever heard of a youthful prodigy in a corn field? Well, here's one. Clyde Martin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Martin, shucked thirty-five bushels of corn at the farm, south of the city, in just three and one-half hours by the clock. And this is not all he did. He also cribbed all of the corn which he shucked in that time. This is somewhat of a record when it is remembered that the youth is only thirteen years old.

The Manila high school basketball team will play the strong Milroy basketball team at the latter place Friday night. This will be the first time the two teams have ever met and a good game is expected.

Santa Claus will enlarge his route this year and will visit every boy and girl in Rushville. The Daily Republican has made special arrangements with him, and together the paper and Santa Claus have settled on a plan by which every home in the city can be visited.

The marriage of Miss Glottis Osborne of Mays to Pendleton Kirkpatrick, which took place at Covington, October 2, was announced after sabbath school last Sunday. (Center correspondent).

Newton L. Peck and daughter, Mrs. Bracken Wagoner, are visiting his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Heck at Sullivan, Ind., this week. (Gowdy correspondent).

Dora Betker has grown up with the cigar business in Rushville having worked at it the greater part of his life. He was employed by George Wingerter and then went into business for himself.

Born to the wife of Tom Miller, living southwest of the city, a 101 pound boy last night.

Roydon Cox and Max Wallace will go to Bloomington Friday to attend the Indiana-Purdue football game Saturday.

Miss Mary Glaska has resigned her position at the Lacy bakery and will accept the position of bookkeeper at the steam laundry.

Dr. W. C. Smith has returned from a week's hunting trip in Scott county. He was in the camp with Ol Dale Ol Walton and Fred Cleveland.

The Rev. and Mrs. Frank B. Thomas of Kansas, Ill., Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Long and two sons and Emma Cook of New Salem, Lavonne Borem of Orange were entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ora Logan at their home southeast of town.

OLD TIME RIVALS READY FOR GAME

Indiana and Purdue Will Clash Saturday in Their Annual Gridiron Battle for Supremacy

FIRST GAME PLAYED 1892

Since Then Indiana Has Won 9, Purdue 12, and Three Scores Were Tied—Records Summarized

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 18—Indiana and Purdue, rivals for nearly a third of a century, will meet in their annual battle for gridiron supremacy, Saturday, Nov. 22, at the Ross-Ade bowl, new Purdue athletic field. The game will be the 23rd played between the two state institutions in their 31 years of athletic competition. In the 22 games played so far, Indiana has triumphed in nine while the Boilermakers have won 12. Three have resulted in ties.

The rivalry between the two schools has grown so intense at times that it was necessary to discontinue athletic relations, temporarily, until the feeling tempered. The first break came in 1894 and games were not continued again until 1897. The years 1898, 1903, 1906 and 1907 were also open years. No games were played in 1918 and 1919 because of the war.

By comparative scores the teams are about evenly matched this fall. Indiana has been defeated by Chicago, Northwestern and Louisiana and boasts a victory over Ohio State, in addition to early season wins over DePauw and Rose Poly. Purdue has won from Northwestern but has lost to Ohio State and Chicago. History shows that season's records means nothing when these traditional opponents meet. Always they rise to the heights when pitted against one another.

The record since 1892 is as follows:

1892—Indiana 0; Purdue 68
1893—Indiana 0; Purdue 64.
1894—Indiana forfeited game to Purdue
1895—No game.
1896—No game.
1897—Indiana 6; Purdue 20
1898—Indiana 0; Purdue 14
1899—No game.
1900—Indiana 24; Purdue 5
1901—Indiana 11; Purdue 5.
1902—Indiana 0; Purdue 39
1903—No game.
1904—Indiana 12; Purdue 27.
1905—Indiana 11; Purdue 11
1906—No game.
1907—No game.
1908—Indiana 10; Purdue 4
1909—Indiana 36; Purdue 3
1910—Indiana 15; Purdue 0
1911—Indiana 5; Purdue 12
1912—Indiana 7; Purdue 34
1913—Indiana 7—Purdue 42
1914—Indiana 14; Purdue 23
1915—Indiana 0; Purdue 7
1916—Indiana 0; Purdue 0
1917—Indiana 37; Purdue 0
1918—No game.
1919—No game
1920—Indiana 20; Purdue 7
1921—Indiana 3; Purdue 0
1922—Indiana 7; Purdue 7
1923—Indiana 3; Purdue 0
Games won, Indiana 9; Purdue 12; Ties 3. Total points scores, Indiana 217; Purdue 392.

The season's record for the two teams:

INDIANA

65 Rose Poly 0
21 DePauw 0
14 Louisiana 20
0 Chicago 23
7 Northwestern 17
12 Ohio State 7

PURDUE

21 Wabash 7
42 Rose Poly 3
6 Chicago 19
14 Northwestern 7
0 Ohio State 7
36 DePauw 0

NOTE—This record does not include the game of Nov. 15.

Chicago—Coach Stagg told his Chicago gridders today that every team has "at least one good game" in its system in the course of a season and that Wisconsin was "due" to show it this Saturday. He warned them of the danger of losing the conference championship through over-confidence.

STATE PROGRAM FOR SAFETY IS OUTLINED

Governor Emmett F. Branch Tells Conference of Governors About Indiana Plans

SESSIONS AT JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 18—The state program for safety in Indiana was outlined by Governor Emmett F. Branch, in an address before the annual conference of governors here today.

He told of calling the safety conference last October and the suggestions for safety that were made there. He told of the resolutions adopted for safety after the conference by the safety committee.

"Grade crossing accident prevention is one of the big questions of the hour and no one recognizes it more than the people of Indiana," the Governor declared. "There is a widespread demand that something be done to at least lessen those accidents if not totally prevent them."

"Just how this can be done it is not only worthy of the best thought but of immediate remedial action of some kind whereby it is possible. What my recommendations to the next legislature on this subject will be, I am not sure at this time, but I expect to use the resolutions of our safety committee as a basis therefor."

VARSITY 'P' LUNCHEON

To Exhibit First Football Tactics Used by Purdue at Event

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 18—The presence of John B. Burris, Purdue's first football captain, and the exhibition of the first football tactics used by the Boilermakers will be two of the features of a luncheon Saturday, Nov. 22, for men who have won the varsity "P".

The luncheon will be held in the Memorial Union building on the campus, and it is to be one of the big features of the Purdue homecoming on that date. The homecoming is to be celebrated this year at the game with Indiana, which will dedicate Purdue's new Ross-Ade stadium.

Varsity "P" men only will be admitted to the luncheon and a special program has been prepared. It is expected that several hundred Purdue athletes will attend.

LIKENS SCHOOLS TO A CORPORATION

the public schools can serve the boys and girls better than the private schools. There should be an avenue, however, for parents to send their children to some school other than the public schools if they desired.

Sept. Altman briefly outlined the steps in the development of education and recalled that the high school was not generally in use until late in the nineteenth century. He said that the establishment of the junior high school was for the purpose of closing the gap between the grades and the high school, where so many pupils were lost.

The speaker told of the platoon system that is being used in some large cities, and in closing, pointed out some of the needs of Rushville schools, and gave some figures showing the cost of education in Rushville.

SECTIONALS ON SATURDAY'S BILL

Two Important Championships Will be Decided When Southern and Pacific Teams Meet

THREE MORE FOR NOTRE DAME

Michigan and Iowa Meet in One of Important Games of The Western Conference

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Nov. 18—Two important sectional championships will be decided in the next games on the program which practically finish the 1924 football season.

The Pacific Coast title hangs on a game between California and Stanford at Berkeley and the southern crown depends upon the outcome of the game between Georgia and Alabama at Birmingham.

California and Stanford are unbeaten on the coast but California has been held to one tie by Washington.

California, however, may have the advantage of more work and certainly will not suffer from lack of confidence after escaping defeat for four years.

California had another game on the schedule against Pennsylvania on New Year's day, but it will not affect the standing of the coast conference.

Georgia is now leading the southern conference, having escaped defeat by a conference team. The only blemish on her record is a 7 to 6 defeat by Yale and there is nothing in that to cause shame.

Alabama was speeding like a sure champion until Centre beat them last Saturday but Centre is no longer in the conference. Georgia has a chance to get a clear claim on the southern title by beating Alabama and then winning her last game from Centre.

Notre Dame, undefeated through one of the hardest schedules in the country, has three more games to play and they do not look to be dangerous. Northwestern, the second conference team on the schedule, Carnegie Tech and Southern California present what little opposition Notre Dame may find in the way of a claim for a national championship.

After having downed the Army, Princeton, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Nebraska in succession, without really being extended, Notre Dame seems to have passed the hardest spots of the season. The squad is in good condition and seems to be in no danger of going stale.

Michigan and Iowa meet in one of the important games of the western conference and Illinois and Ohio in another. The standing in the conference may be all tangled up if these games do not run according to form.

Chicago, the conference leader, plays Wisconsin at Chicago and is expected to win although form seems to matter little among the Big Ten.

Dartmouth is through for the season in the east, but Pennsylvania has to beat Cornell on Thanksgiving day to retain any kind of a claim for the championship.

of the vicinity, who had gathered, worked furiously in an effort to release her, because the flames were gradually creeping back toward her.

Those who were present while the rescue work was going on say that the timely arrival of a state highway truck is the only thing that saved Mrs. Danielson from being perhaps fatally burned.

A chain was fastened to the burning machine by means of a hook and the weight of the wreckage removed from Mrs. Danielson's leg by the highway truck, and just as she was dragged from beneath the car, the hook straightened out and the wrecked automobile settled back in the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson and son were taken to the hospital by Mr. Offutt and Dewire remained at the scene of the accident. The gasoline leaked from the tank before the flames reached it.

The fire apparently started some place near the engine and it is thought that the oil caught fire. The automobile was a Revere, open model, with wire wheels and every inflammable part on it was burned.

Baggage in the car also was damaged by fire. There was a revolver and cartridges in the machine, and one of them exploded occasionally.

Terre Haute—Ike Middleton, 25; Frank Cilia 23, and Tom Middleton 21, charged with bootlegger, gun-wielding, and chicken stealing respectively, were all three arrested while living together in one house.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

Lafayette—After being idle since Friday, the Purdue team was given a light workout on Stuart Field yesterday in preparation for Indiana. The team is in good shape with the exception of Captain Claypool who is out with injuries.

Urbana—Though the experimental season is over, Bob Zupke plans to try several "new stunts" against Ohio Saturday in the final game. Britton will be at guard, Green at Granger's place and Gallivan at quarter.

South Bend—A mild blizzard and four inches of snow stopped Notre Dame preparations for Northwestern yesterday, but scrimmage was to be held today in spite of weather conditions.

Columbus—Adding gloves to their heavy grid-iron attire, Ohio gridders ran through a long offensive drill. New plays were introduced which will be used against Illinois Saturday.

Madison—Enthusiasm over the chance of complete vindication despite its season's record of defeats, Wisconsin players buckled down in their preparations for Chicago in a long indoor drill yesterday. Victory over the Maroons, the Badgers figure would make up for any season mistakes.

Ann Arbor—Discovery of a tackle and the perfection of several new plays are Michigan coaching problems for the week. Babcock, regular tackle will be out of the final game.

Bloomington—Indiana worked out on a wet field in rain and snow yesterday. Practice was light, however. The Purdue game Saturday is the biggest of the season.

Iowa City—A demonstration by Freshmen of what the scouts brought back from Columbus where they saw Michigan comprised first preparations for the Wolverines yesterday. Strengthening of the line is the major coaching problem.

New Haven—Two Yale players, Gale and Liman, were injured more seriously than at first thought and probably will not be able to play against Harvard. The rest of the team were given a short signal practice, followed by talks from the coaches on individual weaknesses displayed in the Princeton game.

Cambridge—A badly crippled Harvard varsity was driven indoors by the cold weather and was given a slight workout in the gym. Dr. Tommy Richards, surgeon for the team, said today that not in years had so many regulars been on the hospital list a week before the big game with Yale.

New East-West Games on Tap

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 18—Many new inter-sectional features are being planned for next year's football schedule. Some of the longest established rivalries may be abolished to make room for games between Eastern and Middlewestern teams, while the Southern invasion of the Northern and Eastern terrains may be more comprehensive than ever.

The intersectional idea of competition, as has been pointed out before, not only was responsible for the great growth of public interest in football, but it resulted in great good for football by spreading smart football all over the country from the East where once it was almost a local game.

Southern teams and Middlewestern teams learned the rudiments of football by watching and playing against Eastern teams and they went home and so improved on the lessons acquired that the East is almost in back water now.

Notre Dame is the greatest drawing card in the country and for that reason Notre Dame would be welcomed on most any Eastern schedule. The idea of a "drawing card" suggests commercialism, but the term in this case cannot be applied with its ordinary association. Football managers want big gates not for personal profit but to raise the funds for the promotion and encouragement of many other sports for which football has to carry the financial load and furnish the money.

It seems quite certain that Notre Dame will be on the Pennsylvania schedule next year because Pennsylvania is willing to play in South Bend in 1926 and Knute Rockne, the guiding genius of Notre Dame football, wants home-and-home arrangements in the future.

Princeton may not be able to take a Notre Dame game next year and it is doubtful if Rockne could find a place on the schedule for Princeton if the Pennsylvania game is scheduled. Princeton would like to arrange a game with Dartmouth and that would make it necessary for Princeton to take Notre Dame too early in the season for Princeton's effort or too close to the "Big Three" games for good judgment.

Notre Dame has been able to arrange three Eastern games in the past few years because Carnegie

Tech was willing to take a date at the tail-end of the schedule. Princeton wouldn't take a date after her two "Big Three" games, and the peculiar arrangement of the "Big Three" schedule always forces Princeton to end the season a week before Harvard and Yale.

Evanston—Snow drove the Purple football players inside the gymnasium where Notre Dame plays were explained in detail. Coaches expect to teach them more about Irish style today when they scrimmage against freshmen.

WOMEN TO TAKE AN ACTIVE PART

Four Organizations Announce They Will Fight for or Against Measures in Indiana Legislature

"BLUE LAWS" ONE MEASURE

W. C. T. U. Organization is Supporting Censorship of Motion Pictures in Next Session

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Four Indiana women's organizations have announced today they will take an active part fighting for and against measures to be presented at the next session of the legislature.

These organizations are the State Legislative Council of Women, The State Federation of Clubs, the League of Women Voters, and the W. C. T. U.

One of the principal measures of interest to the women's organizations is the child labor amendment enacted by the last session of Congress which will come before the assembly. This measure will be explained at a meeting early in December of the Legislative Council of Women by Owen Lovejoy.

The organizations will give their attention to measures dealing with prohibition and the "blue laws." The W. C. T. U. is prepared to lead an attack on any attempt to modify laws on either of these subjects. This organization is trying to get better observance of the laws we have not rather than to make them more stringent.

The State Federation of Clubs is backing a bill being written by the state board of health to give any county or city of more than a population to be designated, permission to establish a full-time health department. The board is also drafting a eugenics bill which the federation is backing. The bill would create a state eugenics to collect data and study persons who might become parents of socially inadequate children.

The bill provides a hearing before a judge or, if the person demands it, a jury who could order sterilization.

The measure, according to Dr. William F. King, secretary of the state board of health, is purely eugenical and not punitive. It would

FINISH PREPARATION FOR ENDOWMENT FUND

American Legion Making Arrangements for Five-Million Dollar Campaign for War Orphans

5,000 CHILDREN NEED CARE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18—Preparations for the national convention of the American Legion for a $5,000,000 endowment fund campaign for orphaned children of the war.

The campaign, carrying out the policy adopted at the national convention in St. Paul, was given the approval of James A. Drain, national commander, and William Metcalf, Topeka, Kans., John R. McQuigg, Cleveland, and Edgar B. Dunlap, Gainesville, Ga., members of the national finance committee at a conference here yesterday.

Five thousand orphaned children of the war are in need of care at the present moment, Mark McKee, of Detroit, a member of the child welfare committee, told members of the finance committee.

McKee said the Legion's two bills for orphaned children at Otter Lake, Mich., and Independence, Kans., were already overcrowded.

Present facilities of the Legion for caring for the orphans will start and for no more expansion, he said, in urging that the $5,000,000 endowment drive be launched immediately.

Lincoln Lives Again

Abraham Lincoln lives again in the motion picture version of the life of the immortal president, which opened a four day engagement at the Princess theatre Monday. A special matinee for school children was given at four o'clock this afternoon.

No school child should fail to see the pictured story of the struggles of the stalwart Lincoln, his devotion to an ideal and his ultimate triumph, only to be stricken down by an assassin's bullet at a time when his kindly sympathy would have been invaluable in the reconstruction of the bleeding nation.

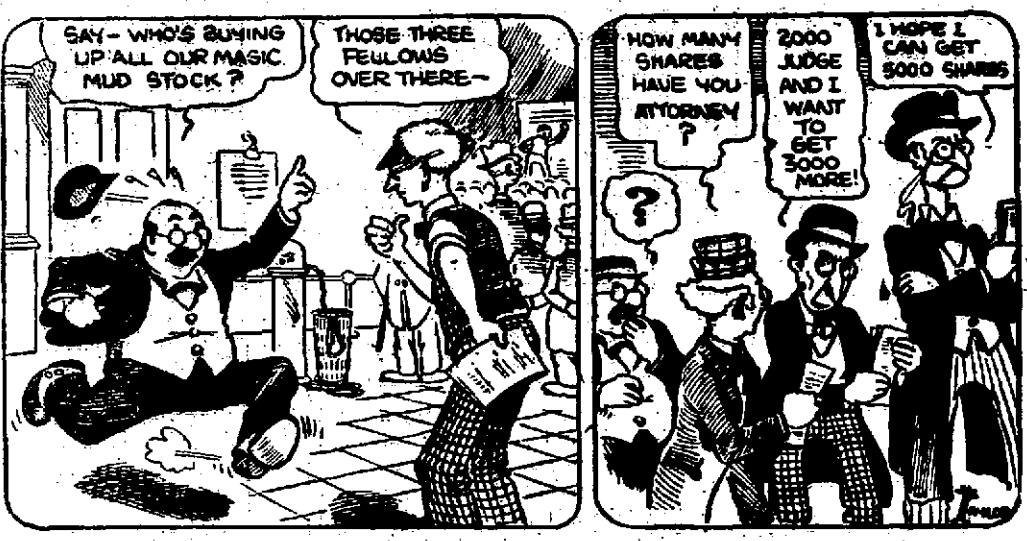

The lesson in American history, the patriotic ideals that it teaches, make the motion picture worth more than the knowledge of the Emancipator's life than can be gained from reading history.

The motion picture takes him from youth to his death bed, depicting his early trials, when he was compelled to subdue the bully at New Salem, Ill., and presents a vivid picture of

Di-Jo Comes As A Great Relief To Sufferers From Chronic Indigestion

Don't suffer from indigestion. It's needless and dangerous. There isn't anything that makes one feel out of sorts so much as a stomach that isn't anything that makes one feel out of sorts so much as a stomach that isn't working properly. If you get up in the morning with that terrible taste in your mouth, irritable, out of sorts, you can wage a great deal that the cause lies with your stomach.

If you get up in the morning feeling that way, remember one thing—after you have eaten the heavy meal of the day you can prevent a repetition of that dragged out feeling in the morning by taking Di-Jo. This aid to digestion will relieve the stomach of much of the work it is forced to do. It will permit it to rest and give it a chance to recover from too heavy work.

Take Di-Jo after each meal and you'll find your stomach will be able to digest your food properly and you'll feel much better yourself.

Go to your druggist today and get Di-Jo. It will mean your stomach troubles are practically over.

If you are troubled with constipation take DI-VAC. It is sold by all druggists and is recommended as the proper laxative to be used in connection with Di-Jo if any is needed.

How Fire Looked From Air

This is a remarkable airplane view of the $5,000,000 Jersey City (N. J.) fire, at its height. More than 1500 families were made homeless, it is estimated, when a dozen tenement houses were destroyed. Three large factories also were razed. Firemen from Jersey City, Hoboken and New York fought the flames for several hours before the conflagration finally was brought under control.

How Do You Service Your Car?

WHEN you put hundreds or thousands of dollars into a motor car investment, you raise a big question about the "servicing" that the maker and sales-agency intend to give you.

You expect them to carry a heavy responsibility toward the car long after it has left their control, yet how far do you go toward meeting this half way in the treatment you yourself accord it?

Can you call it first class servicing to make the motor stutter along under the handicaps of poor firing and excessive carbonization that go with low grade, kerosenish motor fuel?

Silver Flash Gasoline

—used regularly—means that you are doing your rightful share in servicing the motor part of your investment.

You are giving the engine the full, cushioned, perfect explosion that heavy, kerosenish fuel can never deliver—and at a lower season-cost than you really pay in the end for pump-cheap fuels. Silver Flash starts with a minimum of priming in coldest weather; it drives without the wasteful over-richness of mixture needed with common brand fuels. You secure outstandingly greater value whether you measure it in motor condition, miles traveled, comfort in starting and driving, or in actual money paid for your season's gasoline supply.
